Thinking About the Poem

1. (i) What does Sandburg think the fog is like?
- (ii) How does the fog come?
- (iii) What does 'it' in the third line refer to?
- (iv) Does the poet actually say that the fog is like a cat? Find three things that tell us that the fog is like a cat.

- Ans.
- (i) Sandburg thinks the fog is like a cat.
 - (ii) The fog comes silently like a cat on its small feet.
 - (iii) In the third line 'it' refers to the fog that has covered the city and it seems as if it is looking over the city like a cat.
 - (iv) No, the poet does not actually say that the fog is like a cat. However, he has used cat as a metaphor for describing the fog. He says that the fog comes on its little cat feet, which implies that the fog is like a cat as it comes slowly. He also says that the fog looks over the harbour and the city and then moves on, implying that the fog has covered the city and is sitting and looking at it, thereby again comparing it to a cat. This is reiterated when he says that the fog looks over the city sitting on 'silent haunches'. This also shows the reference to a cat as a cat always sits with its knees bent. Hence, he has compared the fog to a cat without actually saying so.

3. Does this poem have a rhyme scheme? Poetry that does not have an obvious rhythm or rhyme is called 'free verse'.

Ans. This poem does not have a rhyme scheme as the sentences do not end with like-sounds. There is no pattern of similarity in the sounds of the ending words of any of the sentences, therefore the poem is written in free verse.
